Russ Envoy Sure Of War With U.S.

Present Cold War May Last For
Many Years, U.S. Diplomat Says

NEW YORK, Jan. 4—(AP)—Most Communist diplomats and statesmen east of the Iron Curtain seem convinced that the United States and Russia eventually will go to war, says Lt.-Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, former U.S. ambassador to Moscow.

It would be "foolish to disregard the danger of war" that is inherent in the current situation, Smith says in his book, "Three Years in Moscow," published today.

Smith, who was in Russia in 1946, says: "I am not in a position to remember that the U.S. will go to war to continue a cold-war struggle that may extend over a period of many years."

"We dare not allow ourselves any false sense of security," Smith writes. "We must anticipate that the Soviets will continue to strive to expand their power, to expand their influence, to expand their influence."

The book covers the critical period from March 1946, when he arrived in Moscow, to the signing of the peace treaty with Japan in 1949.

Smith says: "The Kremlin has embarked on an aggressive line of action which will continue to expand as long as the cold war exists."

The book also discusses the split between the Communists and the Chinese Nationalists.

Smith says: "The Chinese Communists have adopted a policy of non-resistance to the Communists in the inevitable conflict."

Neighbors Help Sick Dog

IT TAKES TWO men to carry ailing Joe, big St. Bernard, from his "hospital" basement, and Jerry Glazier, four, 11920-80 street, practices good neighbor policy by hauling him on outing.

Two Men Needed To Move Sick Dog

By J. V. O'Neill
Bulletin Staff Writer

A mysterious illness has stricken Joe, the people's pet out in Kingsway.

Unable to move because of puzzling paralysis of the back legs, the big St. Bernard has wasted away 180 to 160 pounds in 10 days.

Joe's present home is in the basement of 11920-80 street, where he is regarded as the third member in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Glazier, proprietors of Kingsway Cabins.

Probably one of the most photographed dogs in Edmonton, Joe has been a favorite for the cameras of visiting tourists. They often had their children pose on Joe's back or hang on to his big, strong legs.

So far experts have not determined the nature of Joe's ailment.

INJECTIONS

Some time ago he was given injections of penicillin for what was diagnosed as a bad cold and tonsillitis. Veterinarians now believe Joe has been too long allergic to the injections and the possible complications may have developed in a section of the spinal column.

Joe, whose registered name is Duke of the Big Parade, has been examined by several veterinarians as well as a medical doctor and a chiropractor.

If spinal fluid tests now being made prove of no diagnostic value, Dr. Joe's spine may be X-rayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Glazier have been regaling the two men of average strength to lift him up and down, and have made many daily outings.

Joe is taking his infirmity with the good nature characteristic of his breed.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirk said $100 for Joe when he was six weeks old. To date, more than $300 has been spent in an effort to bring him back to happy dogdom.

Diesel Trials For February

A Canadian National Railways fast freight will pull into Edmonton from Winnipeg powered by a 1,000-hp diesel engine. It will be the first of a series of western experiments early in February. It was announced today by Mr. G. Skelding, supervisor of traffic of the Canadian National.

The crack passenger train on the C.N. line between Winnipeg and Montreal has been powered by heavy diesels, but the results have not been highly satisfactory, said Mr. Skelding.

TIME WAS when hockey players crossed sweets and pastries off their menu, at least during the playing season. But if that isn't a box of chocolates Flyer linemen Colin Kilburn, left, and Doug Anderson, are about to assail well put in with it.

Flyer Buddies Make Joke Of WCHL Point Struggle

By Stan Moher
Sports Editor

Latest 'match race' since Seabiscuit knocked off War Admiral, a decade and more ago, has converted the point strivers of the Western Canada Hockey League into a two-player runaway.

Making a hollow joke of what is frequently a keenly contested struggle, often involving 10 or a dozen sharpshooters, is the Flyer pair of Colin Kilburn and Doug Anderson.

Very newest set of averages to somehow break out from behind the iron curtain of the WCHL leap, President D. P. McDonald cloaks so many matters what the referee Sam Rosen-Cliff Ethier can't even know Kilburn and his off-the-cuff wit about the ice being滑行 along at the head of the pack.

TWO-MAN RACE

Both Kilburn and Anderson, including a half-dozen goals, give him a whisker edge over his teammate. Anderson can boast with his 43 points, including 17 assists, that he put his far out of front of the pack in the four-team as a good samaritan.

After Kilburn and Anderson there is another closer than Bing Crosby and another Flyer, who has 31 points.

The Kilburn-Anderson struggle for possession of the top slot has been going along in this neck-and-neck fashion for a month and more.

Until injured, their pivot-man, Steve St. John, was keeping H. "Three-horse" off. Now he doesn't look as though any one else is going to intrude on the struggle, barring injuries, of course, to either or both of the principals.

And it's an interesting situation that the two Flyer blocks locked in a duel for point honors in the prestige and enhanced professional value that will go to the greater.

GREEN FRESHMAN SEASON

Two years back, as a freshman trying to snare a beach-head in WCHL, company, Anderson performed well enough to earn rookie award honors.

He slipped off a mite last season, there being those who explained his poor showing by the fact he had an excess of high school footballing all the nice things written about him in the papers.

In other words, the Anderson boy got the big hit for the Anderson hat-hands.

Whether this was the case or not, there's no doubt this fine product, born and raised in Kilburn, last year's rookie winner, and increasingly down-the-aisle sort of operator, out there again this year. Anderson has blossomed into a real major league prospect.

These averages show that rookie dynamo Hugh Coffin, Calgary, has drawn a blank, and the Flyer to top the bad-men of the loop. He has a mere 17 minutes edge over the Harvey (Pug) Young Leaders to follow.

STAN Muhler ON SPORT

Powers' Models—Now a Powers' Plan

Jack Powers, from out of Spokane, Wash., has a fighter—two in fact—and if you happen to be a fight promoter he's got a plan he hopes will engage your fancy.

Oh, yes. Before I forget . . . you also need a couple of hundred thousand dollars, that is—with which to back up your promotional plan.

Powers is, of course, Eddie (Bolo) Halligan's manager (remember the much discussed Halligan-Roddy McDonald rumbles of about 12 months back?).

As well, the Spokane sportsman tells alacent "Tiger" Jack Fox with whom—and for how much—he will be eye to eye and the like. And it is Fox—not the "sneaky" Halligan—who is the hub of that aforementioned Powers-plan-for-you.

Briefly Powers has broadcast, with the utter bravado that frequently characterizes a manager, that "Tiger" Jack Fox will fight any heavyweight or light-heavyweight in Canada . . . for a two hundred dollar guarantee, which I am sure you will agree is reasonable and let the chips fall where they may.

The line forms on the left, for a change.

Remember Fox vs. Delaney?

By this time Fox needs no knock-down to local fight fans. Twice recently he stopped off at the Cow Palace long enough to stiffen what were advertised as worth opponents.

Last time it was one Al Delaney for whom the lights blinked out, along about the third round. By way of a box-office come-on the pre-fight billboards had shouted the fact that Delaney twice had floored Fox during a clash in Alaska last summer.

In a series of what transpired in their local go this only goes to prove that anything can happen in Alaska—and frequently does.

Fox handled (manhandled would be more correct) Delaney so easily—"win such a good fight," as they say on Jacobs Beach—that the customers had little about which to cheer.

Practically Fox's main event generally was rated a skinned cat despite the veteran Fox's efforts to provide at least half a show.

It was, in fact, the crummier aspects of the fight that prompted manager Powers to get in touch with us in the first place.

So Mr. Powers is Sorry

"Am writing this letter to apologize to you sportsmen and to the boxing fans of Edmonton for the poor fight of the last card, involving my heavyweight 'Tiger' Jack Fox," he led off.

"I had not seen Delaney since last July until I saw him there in Edmonton and I had no idea he had slipped so far down the out of the ring scale."

"Such a one-sided match does not do my fighter any good and is a sure way to hurt his drawing power. I wish to emphasize that I do not pick opponents for my fighters and try to put them in soft spots."

That's the point Mr. Powers makes in his clinch challenge on behalf of his No. 1 boxer, backed with the taunt "if there's a Canadian heavyweight with sufficient intestinal fortitude to take on Fox—bring him on."

Mr. Powers also inserted a plug—several of them, in fact—on behalf of promoter Berry, the man responsible for the Delaney-Fox in the first place.

The long-suffering Berry is a man who is unmotivated—he is honest and doesn't attempt to fix (tsk, tsk) fights to build up local favorites as so many promoters do."

Anyway, there it is, that offer of Powers, just waiting to be snatched up. And all you need is a heavyweight and $200 in your pocket, the recent Christmas scramble notwithstanding.

Basketball Leagues Re-Open Friday Night

Edmonton Basketball Association announced last night that there will be no league playoffs this season. The teams leading each league at the end of the season will be declared city champions.

All teams are eligible for the city divisional playoffs of the Alberta Amateur Basketball Association, and depending on the number entered, games will be played in three series.

(1) Two teams—best of three. (2) Three teams—winner of EBA receives bye, second and third play two-game-total-point series; winner plays team with by best of three.

(3) Four teams—first and fourth, second and third play two-game-total-point series; winners play team with best of three.

(4) Five teams—winner of EBA receives bye, second and fifth, third and fourth play semi-final games; remaining three draw for bye, two teams left play two-game-total points and winner plays team with best of three.

Clubs—Writers Disagree On Finances of Grey Cup

TORONTO, Jan. 4—(CP)—Eastern and western senior football club officials addressed their voices yesterday to those of Canadian sports editors and writers who plumped for a better financial deal for western Canada Grey Cup final teams.

"What do you consider an acceptable financial deal for the Grey Cup net receipts the editors were asked in the annual Canadian Press year-end sports poll. There were 49 replies with only four exceptions they thought the west should receive the largest in finances over the eastern teams."

The editors—and later club officials—based their opinion on the fact western teams must travel 2,000 miles or more daily to Toronto for the final. In addition players arrive about one week in advance so that they may become accustomed to the eastern weather.

ISSUE WITH WIFU

Each Grey Cup finalist receives $6,000 of the net receipts after transportation costs are paid for 24 persons and hotel expenses covering two days.

It is the eastern issue which will be discussed at various league meetings in the next two months and based on the observations of officials seems to be the main point. It is due for discussion at the Western Interprovincial Football Union meeting at Regina Jan. 15 and in Prince Albert Jan. 16. It is also at the Jan. 21 meeting of the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union at Toronto.

And there's little doubt it will be a lively topic at the annual meeting of the Canadian Rugby Union, ruling body of the sport in the west, on Feb. 11 in Victoria, B.C.

Some of the sports editors and writers suggested a straight 60-40 split in net receipts. The eastern clubs, the majority voted for a special allowance due to their two- and three-day train journeys to and from the final, compared to the eastern clubs' one-day or two-day over-the-road trip for out-of-town eastern teams.

Only three of 40 editors—Dink Carroll of the Montreal Gazette, Paul L. Lefebvre of the Montreal Star and Gerald Renaud of Ottawa Le Droit—thought the west did well enough under the present arrangement.

Here's what Big Four officials had to say about the poll:

HERE'S WHAT THEY SAY

Bob Moran, Toronto Argonauts club president: "I think the west should be granted extra extra compensation for the extra expenses involved in the 60-40 split. Their players should come east one week in advance of the playing date to become acclimated and expenses up to that point should be compensated. Why shouldn't there be a two-game east series instead of one? That way, there can be no disagreement."

Lev Heyman, coach of Montreal Alouettes: "As it is now, a 50-50 split between the west and the east actually is in effect because the west is given travelling expenses before the net is calculated. The west's expenses are higher than the east's."

It is not difficult to tell much better what my reaction to the split is when I see what Calgary and Montreal have done with the last two years in the west and the last three in the east."

Art Chapman of Winnipeg, president of the WIFU, said:

"It is a 50-50 split after all expenses—training, transportation and hotel are paid for."

W. G. Sargeant, president-elect of Edmonton Eskimos:

"I favor a 50-50 split after all teams' expenses."

Stan Karchewski, president of Saskatchewan Roughriders:

"I think it should be a 60-40 split. A western club should be paid the same as an eastern club for the salaries of probably 10 or 12 men for time lost from their job, for about two weeks."

And the CRU?

Dr. W. A. Campbell of Kingston, president of the club, said the Canadian Press in a statement last week:

"There is some virtue in the sports editors' proposals."

W. H. Griffith, president of the CRU:

"I think it should be a 60-40 split. A western club should be paid the same as an eastern club for the salaries of probably 10 or 12 men for time lost from their job, for about two weeks."

There is some virtue in the sports editors' proposals."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4—(AP)—Clark Griffith yesterday was elected president of Washington Senators. Anson Dorrance, manager, team for the 20th consecutive year.

Young People From Far North Enjoy Southern Hospitality

HOSPITAL LIFE is generally uninviting, but it is interesting for both patients and staff at Charles Camsell where many patients come out of far north. They soon take to southern ways and Harry Anagnik delights to strum guitar for his Coppermine chum, Roger Avrana, 21 and single.

Everything Stops On the Same Day

By Ken Liddell
Bulletin City Editor

Not all the interesting people whom newspaper people are supposed to meet make personal appearances.

Some appear through a proxy who wears the uniform that gets mucked up by mud and water, and the result is that winds and snows as it goes through with His Majesty's mail.

And if the mailmen could see some of the stuff they trundle up to editorial rooms of newspapers, they'd ask for an increase in pension.

Somebody is all the time wanting to get something in the newspaper, and probably some of it is interesting.

And by * * * *

Like the World Calendar Association which sends its stuff from 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, 20, New York, U.S.A., Telephone Circle 6-2460 or cable address "Worldcal". The calendar is presented in a small book each week they've sent two of these things promoting their idea so before they start reading, we'd better get one of them in the paper.

What these people have to say is presented with a future. The slogan is theirs. The product is a calendar when New Year's always falls on a Sunday and all the holidays on the same day the week perpetually.

It is present that the present calendar is out of date because it was inaugurated by the World Calendar in 1950. H.C. and they claim the present calendar's chief trouble is that quarters of the year are not equal. Holidays slide all over the place. They argue, nobody can remember, under the present setup, when a holiday occurred last year and you have to look it up to see when it will happen again.

So their calendar has 12 months but four equal quarters with exactly the same number of days. First day of each quarter falls on a Sunday, the last on a Saturday; each month has 26 work days plus Sundays. You fix up Leap Year by placing an extra day at the end of the first half of the year.

Thus, one year's calendar is just the same as the next and when you tell a friend he hasn't changed throughout the years you are more truthful about it.

Up to UN

They contend the United Nations general assembly will consider the whole thing in September, 1950, and in the meantime credit is certain to the organization that get a year's complete home into the U.S. Unites, as it was, and if you work into this column.

And when you hear further from the U.S. we'll let you know.

FIVE HURT IN CRASH
PRAGUE, Jan. 4.—(UPI)—Five Czechoslovakian military planes were seriously injured when the plane crashed yesterday. The Czechoslovak president, Edward Benes, has been arrested, presumably on charges of antisemitic activities.

NORTHERN PATIENTS at Charles Camsell hospital often make unusual progress. Abraham Unghak, eight, came from Coppermine four months ago, is quickly learning to read English. Teacher is Miss H. Hopkins, with occupational therapy staff.

Airways Dispute Involves Two Lines Into Edmonton

OTTAWA, Jan. 4.—(CP)—The air agreement Canada and the United States signed seven months ago today still a considerable distance from being fully implemented—something he thought was wrong with the original arrangement.

HINT ARREST Five hurt in crash
PRAGUE, Jan. 4.—(UPI)—Five Czechoslovakian military planes were seriously injured when the plane crashed yesterday. The Czechoslovak president, Edward Benes, has been arrested, presumably on charges of antisemitic activities.

AN EPIDEMIC at Cambridge Bay six months ago brought Jacqueline Ehmatoh, 13, to Edmonton for treatment. Now sitting up in bed and getting along fine.

KIBITZERS come with checkers. In women's ward, Elizabeth Niak, Milly Aptekaruk and Doris Kipkak share game. Doris has been in hospital since 10/16. Three are from Coppermine.

NO REPORT ON TALKS

Premier Manning and a spokesman for Agriculture Minister Gardiner intimated last night that an early announcement of the result of current discussions about operation of the Canada Land and Irrigation Control system must待定. The official and other officials opened discussions on a possible agreement for joint operation of the irrigation system. The meeting is expected to end today.

Winter-bound schools in Alberta will receive full department of education grants even though many of them were closed yesterday because of the cold.

Department officials said grants will be paid as though provided through Dec. 31 for 160 days during the entire school year. Divisions have ample leeway in completing the required operations.

School boards may also declare one day a month a school holiday if classrooms are closed because of bad weather, but one of the teaching days last may be considered the declared holiday for that month.

Refineries To Take More Oil

Market for Alberta oil output is increased, especially January 1, with the announcement by Imperial Oil Ltd. that company refineries were prepared to handle larger quantities of crude.

Amount of crude oil the company would accept from the Leduc 103 project will be 900 from 80 to 100 barrels daily; Lower Cretaceous and D2 producers will be able to increase their output from 40 to 60 barrels daily.

With the new market, Alberta oil will be at 50 barrels daily, an increase of 15 barrels daily from 35 at the current peak.

Nothing is done to the British Columbia market but with the new limit of 100 barrels daily.

Golden Spike acceptance has been limited from 225 barrels to 300 per day daily; Joseph Lake producers from 65 barrels daily to 65 barrels daily, an increase of 5.

RED WING MEMORY

STARBOARD FLASHING

Light for Genevieve

Starboard lights are flashing for Genevieve.

Whoever Genevieve may be, she sang and Starboard remembert her singing on a Victoria-bound flight.

What Starboard heard, he liked.

And when he reaches back in Edmonton when he wants to hear

she will be named at a meeting of party leaders here Jan. 15, the newspaper said.

At least that would appear to be the story behind this "red" in Edmonton newspapers.

Will a girl by the name of Genevieve believed to be 16 years old help him get his girl back?

"Yes, what is it?" asked the rabbit. "Uncle Wiggily was surprised at hearing that strange noise again. It seemed to be following him. It sounded like a growl, like a noise and the rabbit gentleman didn't like it. He thought it might be Eddie the wolverine."

"I guess I'm strong enough to pick Peekee, the cute little white mouse out of the snow and putting Peekee in one of his pockets. Eddie the wolverine was hopping again through the snow."

"Are you going to take me back to the cabin?" asked the little white mouse.

"I don't believe I can do that. Peekee answered that rabbit gentleman. "I'm not going to take you away from here, Peekee. But perhaps I can get Mr. Whitewash to take you to Santa Claus."

"Who is Mr. Whitewash?" asked Peekee.

"Mr. Whitewash is a polar bear who works in the snow. Santa Claus is his master. Peekee, he is taking me a visit, as he does every year at Christmas and New Year's. I have time to tell you any more right now, Peekee, because I must nap now."

"Why?" asked Peekee, who seemed to have a good idea.

"Because I must get away from this noise. It's a wolverine, growling noise and I think it is made by Eddie the wolverine. Eddie the wolverine."

Peekee, the cute little white mouse, fled his home inside Uncle Wiggily's great pocket.

"Uncle Wiggily, Uncle Wiggily," squeaked Peekee.

"I'll tell you about it tomorrow if the big wolverine will give the potato to the little mouse. I'm buying a merry-round ride to the grocery to buy a yeast cake for the gold fish."

"Yes, Lawrence Paper Mills has declared dividends of 1st $1.00, 2nd $0.60, 60 cents, payable Jan. 25 to shareholders of record Jan. 4."
